Where to Stay for London International Horse Show 2026

Every visitor's trip to the Show looks a little different, so we've handpicked eight hotels around Excel London and Canary Wharf and sorted them into four simple segments, so you can find your match in seconds — then book direct through the official EventBeds™ widget. Great rates. Great hotels. Fully flexible terms.

HOW THE SEGMENTS WORK

EXCEL CAMPUS

For anyone who wants to walk to the Show and walk straight back, no transport required.

BEST VALUE

Comfortable, well-located and kind to the budget, with more left over for the Shopping Village.

CANARY WHARF

A short hop from Excel with the polish of a proper London stay, ideal for turning the Show into a weekend away.

FAMILY-FRIENDLY

Rooms, pools and breakfasts built with the whole family in mind.

A NOTE ON OVERLAP

Please note, some hotels fit more than one segment, such as the Novotel London Excel, which is a Campus hotel and also suitable for families.

Novotel London Excel

EXCEL CAMPUS

FAMILY-FRIENDLY

Just steps from the Excel Campus, Novotel London Excel is a comfortable base for families and groups who don't want a second journey between hotel and Show. Family rooms sleep up to four, so there's no need to book two rooms, and the dockside Upper Deck Restaurant is a relaxed spot for dinner and drinks after a day at the Show, with views over Victoria Dock to unwind to once the kids are settled.

ibis London Excel Docklands

EXCEL CAMPUS

BEST VALUE

Two minutes' walk from the Excel Campus, ibis London Excel Docklands keeps things simple and comfortable for exhibitors and visitors on an early-starts, long-days schedule. Power showers make quick work of getting ready before the doors open, and the on-site restaurant and bar stays open late for food and drinks once the Show wraps up — handy if you'd rather put the savings toward the Shopping Village.

Crowne Plaza London Docklands

EXCEL CAMPUS

FAMILY-FRIENDLY

A five-minute walk from the Excel Campus, Crowne Plaza London Docklands suits families and groups wanting a little more room to spread out across five days. An indoor heated pool and a well-equipped gym are there to unwind in after a day on your feet, and the Docklands Bar & Grill on-site makes a proper dinner easy without venturing far once the Show finishes for the day.

Moxy London Excel

BEST VALUE

A short walk from the Excel Campus, Moxy London Excel is a stylish, budget-friendly base for solo visitors and weekend groups who'd rather spend on the Show than the stay. Rooms are compact but cleverly designed, and the lobby bar doubles as a social hub for evening drinks, with food and drink available around the clock for whenever the Grandstand runs late.

Holiday Inn Express London – Excel

BEST VALUE

A short walk from the Excel Campus, Holiday Inn Express London – Excel keeps things easy for visitors who just want a reliable, well-priced stay across the five days. A free hot breakfast each morning gets you out the door without a detour, and simple, comfortable rooms mean nothing to think about after a long day at the Show. Plenty of bars and restaurants nearby make it easy to wind down in the evening.

TRIBE London Canary Wharf

CANARY WHARF

A quick DLR or Elizabeth line hop from the Excel Campus, TRIBE London Canary Wharf turns the evening into a proper trip to London rather than a stopover next to the Show. Californian plates at Feels Like June and a sun-lit bar make it easy to unwind after a day on the Campus, right in the heart of Canary Wharf's restaurant scene, with a quick journey back to the Show each morning.
